ABOUT THE JURORS

Kourtney Stone

Kourtney Stone, an artist based in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, holds an MFA in Studio Art from Georgia State University and has an extensive background in ceramics. She has taught at various institutions, presented at major conferences, and received numerous awards and fellowships, including the Welch Fellowship and the NCECA Graduate Fellowship. She is currently an Assistant Professor at Harrisburg Area Community College.

Shawn Williams

Shawn Williams, who earned his MFA from the University of Delaware in 2001 and his BFA from Edinboro University in 1998, is a printmaking and foundation instructor at Harrisburg Area Community College. His solo exhibitions include venues such as the Woodmere Art Museum and Millersville University, and his work has been featured in group shows at prominent locations like the Print Center in Philadelphia and the North American Print Biennial. His work is part of permanent collections at several institutions, including the Woodmere Art Museum and Virginia Commonwealth University.

LANDIS HOUSE

CREATIVE COMMONS

In 2007, Perry County Council of the Arts inherited Landis House, a 5,000-square-foot mansion, and the numerous artworks and artifacts from the Estate of Mary M. Landis.

The mission of Landis House is to serve the community as a Creative Commons, offering a contemporary gallery which provides exhibit opportunities to established and emerging artists, a recital and concert hall for novice and professional musicians, a venue to display historically relevant artifacts in the form of a permanent collection from the life and travels of the Landis Family (in honor of Arthur Clair and Bertha Rippman Landis, the parents of Mary M. Landis), and as a resource promoting community building programs, be it through classes, lectures, readings, and meetings that work in tandem with the overall interests of Perry County Council of the Arts.

67 N. Fourth Street, Newport, PA 17074

Hours: Tuesday & Thursday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Or by Appointment

Prominently located on the square in Newport, the Perry County Council of the Arts (PCCA) Gallery showcases the fine artwork of more than 110 of the region's talented artisans. With the assistance of a knowledgeable, passionately committed staff, you can learn the story behind the artwork and discover who the artists are and what drives them to create.

PCCA Gallery showcases several themed and solo artist exhibitions each year, and with other gallery displays changing more frequently, there is a revolving display of paintings, sculptures, pottery, literature, jewelry, organic homemade personal care products, clothing and accessories.

One S. Second Street, Newport, PA 17074

Hours: Wednesday - Saturday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The mission of Perry County Council of the Arts is to build community through the arts.
